Un été francophone à CORK
Chers Amis, dear Friends,

A ceux et celles qui ne passeront pas tout l'été en France c'est avec joie que nous donnons Rendez-vous pour nos manifestations culturelles et notre programme de cours à CORK en Juillet.

'Nous avons un Shakespeare et il est noir' en ces termes s'exprimait Antoine VITEZ pour évoquer Aimé CESAIRE ; notre Exposition Aimé CESAIRE, La Force de Regarder Demain vous invite à venir à la rencontre du grand poète Francophone tout l'été durant.

Le théâtre GRANARY de CORK nous offre trois Pièces en Juillet dont une en Français Les Cendres et les Lampions de Noëlle RENAUDE.

Les cours d'été pour adultes vous sont ouverts pour des sessions plus ou moins longues en fonction de vos choix et disponibilités.

Notre programme intensif pour les Etudiants en Junior Cert rencontre un franc succès, nous continuons à prendre vos inscriptions jusqu'à fin août 2009, rejoignez-nous toujours plus nombreux.

A très bientôt

Summer Exhibition

We are proud to present in our Gallery during the Summer months an Exhibition curated by the French Foreign Office on the life and work of the renowned and ever-inspiring all-time French Writer and Poet Aimé CÉSAIRE who coined the term negritude and launched the literary movement called the “Great Black Cry”.

André Breton, the high priest of surrealism, describes CÉSAIRE as “A black man who embodies not simply the Black race but all mankind, who will remain for me the prototype of human dignity.”
